

CLEARY GOTTLIB

Diversity, Equity & Inclusion

"At Cleary, we know that investing in our future talent is crucial to our success. We are proud to partner with on-campus groups and pipeline programs that help broaden the representation of underrepresented lawyers not only at the firm, but in the legal profession overall. These efforts help ensure that our population of lawyers can meet all our clients' needs."

Elaine Ewing
Partner, Washington, D.C.

"Cleary's culture is built on foundation stones of community and inclusiveness, and the firm's leadership is committed to those ideals. The diversity of our lawyers and professional staff not only strengthens our practice, it enriches our daily lives. It makes a tangible difference to our workplace everywhere our lawyers practice across the world."

Jonathan Kelly
Partner, London
DE&I Chair, Europe

"Our firm benefits from its diversity of backgrounds, experiences, and perspectives. We foster an inclusive environment in which everyone can contribute to a community that embraces a broad range of viewpoints."

Diversity, Equity & Inclusion: Our Commitment in Action

Cleary Gottlieb is committed to cultivating an inclusive culture where the values, experiences, and perspectives of our diverse professionals are not only celebrated, but reflected in the way we approach legal practice. The firm's Managing Partner, Executive Committee, and various talent committees continuously support our strategy, programming, and initiatives.

The committees develop and implement strategies that support our lawyers, including strengthening our attorney development framework, fostering community, and increasing communication with firm leadership. To advance our goals, the firm offers training, mentoring programs, speaker series, affinity group activities, and special events. Some recent initiatives include interactive education on inclusive leadership, alumni collaborations, and partnerships with clients and organizations committed to advancing diversity, equity, and inclusion in the legal profession.

Mansfield Rule Certification

Mansfield Rule Certification is a legal industry benchmark that measures the structural processes the firm has put in place to ensure our paths to leadership—including lateral hiring, client pitch teams, promotions, appointments, and more—are open and transparent to all qualified lawyers. Diversity Labs, 2021-2022, 2022-2023

The Six Pillars Project

Cleary Gottlieb developed a framework in the global Six Pillars Project to structure our diversity, equity, and inclusion (DE&I) efforts and accelerate our progress in building a more diverse, equitable, and inclusive workplace across the firm. Each of the six global Pillar Projects represents an area critical to advancing equity within our firm.

Below are highlights of our Pillar Projects, including the work that has been accomplished and the ongoing efforts to move each forward.

Values

Embed our DE&I values into our firm's culture, integrating our values into our everyday interactions and decision making at the firm.

Ask Why

Candid conversations among firm partners to identify and address past challenges and implement new behaviors with respect to DE&I, promoting accountability for inclusive behavior.

Facts & Data

Leverage our internal facts and data to better target DE&I initiatives and maintain accountability. We use data to analyze and create accountability in staffing, development, and building a diverse associate population and pipelines.

Talent Structure and Staffing

Improve the experience and retention and promotion outcomes for our lawyers by focusing on more equitable and developmental staffing, sharing objective benchmarks to define success, and equipping senior lawyers with tools for mentoring.

Reporting Mechanisms

Strengthen internal reporting mechanisms on non-inclusive behavior to advance our culture and promote greater accountability.

Education

Implement a comprehensive, global DE&I curriculum that provides everyone in the Cleary community with the tools to be more antiracist, inclusive, and better allies.

Our culture of inclusion is a reflection of our global legal practice. We work daily with clients around the world on matters involving a broad array of legal, business, and social/cultural perspectives.

Cleary Gottlieb sponsors both internal and external programs to encourage networking, community building, and support among lawyers and professional staff of diverse backgrounds and cultures.

Jamal Fulton
Partner, New York

"The firm invests significant time and resources in the development of our associates. One of the ways we do this is through mentorship programs, which provide our lawyers with the opportunity to share and develop their skillsets and ideas in one-to-one or small-group forums for discussion and tangible, accountable goal-setting. This contributes to a stronger sense of community and also reflects a genuine desire for each of our associates to realize their full potential."

Naomi Tarawali

"Cleary's culture is one of its greatest strengths. We are able to collaborate beyond the boundaries of our offices and support one another across multiple jurisdictions by sharing our knowledge and experiences. We understand that the value of each other's viewpoints and the different ways we approach our matters will help us to provide the best possible service to our clients."

Associate Development: An Investment in Our Future

Demonstrated Commitment

Cleary Gottlieb's efforts to increase representation in our senior ranks remains a top priority, and senior lawyers at the firm are actively involved in programming to ensure associates are developed equitably.

As part of the firm's commitment to developing inclusive and engaged leaders, we provide tailored training for senior lawyers on how to manage and communicate inclusively in order to effectively engage across difference. The goal of our programming is to broaden perspectives on issues that relate to diversity, equity, and inclusion within the firm and in the community as a whole.

Cleary advances diversity, equity, and inclusion in the broader arena by partnering with leading stakeholders within and outside the legal industry. These partnerships complement our internal professional development programs and support inclusion of attorneys at the senior lawyer level. The firm sponsors associate participation in the Charting Your Own Course Career (CYOC)

Global DE&I Sponsorship Program

Cleary instituted a global Sponsorship Program for our mid-year associates to focus on and bolster their professional development at the firm. Featuring a one-on-one pairing of an associate and sponsor partner, it includes structured coaching engagement with an external coach and tailored learning and development sessions.

Conference, Black Women in Asset Management (UK), the Black Counsel Forum (UK), the National Asian Pacific American Bar Association (NAPABA) Convention, and Women in Law and Leadership (Belgium), among others.

"As a firm, we are in the business of solving our clients' problems through creative and pragmatic lawyering. The best way to solve the hardest problems is to assemble a team of talented lawyers with diverse backgrounds, experiences, and perspectives. When we do that, we deliver our finest work."

Michael A. Gerstenzang
Managing Partner

Championing Others and One Another: A Mentoring Culture

Integral Relationships

Cleary Gottlieb recognizes the importance and value mentoring has on the professional development of our lawyers. Mentoring serves as an effective tool toward the retention and development of lawyers, including those who are underrepresented in the legal industry, and we are constantly striving to expand both formal and informal mentoring opportunities at the firm.

Mentoring is considered a cornerstone of legal practice at Cleary. In addition to mentoring our lawyers to develop technical legal skills, we are committed to mentoring our lawyers to develop into world-class international lawyers. In our corporate and litigation groups, individual mentoring is complemented by group mentoring in our Attorney Development Teams, which brings partners, senior lawyers, and associates across a range of seniority together for bonding, socializing, and substantive conversations around critical topics for career development. All of our associates are assigned senior lawyer mentors who meet one-on-one with our associates.

Our first-year corporate transaction associates enjoy our Corporate Associates Foundation Initiative, a program to bring group mentoring, partner mentors, trainings on vital topics, and social events geared toward building relationships to our new class of corporate associates to integrate into the firm. Most of our practice groups offer office hours—time to meet with senior lawyers to ask questions and discuss the latest goings on.

Cleary is also proud to partner with a number of our clients that offer diversity mentorship programs to our associates. Typically, this involves a one-on-one pairing with a senior client lawyer and a junior or mid-level Cleary associate to get exposure to the client side of a legal relationship and their in-house work, while obtaining career guidance and coaching. Participating in these opportunities expands the associates' networks and bolsters the professional development offered at Cleary.

"Cleary fosters an environment where everyone is part of a team and a greater community. I, like many of our lawyers, have been fortunate enough to have been resident in multiple offices around the world. My time at both the Paris and Abu Dhabi offices has provided me with not only a local, but also an international perspective needed to do my work at the highest level."

Advancing Gender Equity

Lawyers at Cleary Gottlieb are continually recognized for their leadership and success. These lawyers have been lauded for their experience and prowess in areas such as antitrust, banking and finance, bankruptcy and restructuring, capital markets, investigations, litigation, mergers and acquisitions, private equity, pro bono, and tax. They have earned commendations including "Innovative Leader," "Rising Star," "Most Influential," and "Top Lawyer," among others.

Engaged Leadership

Cleary Gottlieb is committed to fostering inclusion at the firm and in the legal profession overall. The firm's leadership is committed to advancing careers at Cleary, and it is one of our top strategic priorities. The firm continues to invest substantial resources to provide equitable experiences and opportunities at the firm and in the legal profession overall.

The Women Lawyers' Advisory Committee (WLAC) sponsors the creation of forums and tools to foster and strengthen the firm's commitment to inclusion for everyone. Through these efforts, WLAC aims to increase the development, retention, and promotion of our associates at the firm.

WLAC provides forums for associates to share guidance on the development of the firm's practices and initiatives impacting professional and career development, staffing, and mentorship.

WLAC also supports associates with cultivating relationships with senior lawyers and alumni.

Cleary supports Women's Working Groups (WWG) in several offices, including Brussels, London, New York, and Washington, D.C. WWGs are associate-led forums for women lawyers to meet and advance initiatives to enhance the experience of lawyers at the firm.

Inclusion and Community: Cultivating Connections

Cleary Gottlieb believes that fostering interactions among colleagues with similar affinities, as well as those with diverse experiences and perspectives, makes us a more welcoming and supportive firm — and one that is better positioned to serve our clients.

Our affinity groups and professionals' affinity networks collaborate with firm leadership, conduct continuing legal education programs, raise awareness about topics relevant to members of their respective groups, identify culturally relevant pro bono matters and potential partnerships, and organize networking activities.

Affinity groups and professionals' affinity networks are empowered to be active participants in the firm's efforts to achieve greater inclusion. Cleary proudly supports the following affinity groups in the U.S. and Working Groups in our other offices:

- Black Affinity Group
- Black and Minority Ethnic (BAME) Working Group
- East Asian Affinity Group
- EMEA Black Affinity Group (BAG)
- Latinx Affinity Group

- LGBTQ+ Affinity Group
- LGBTQ+ Working Groups
- South East Asian-South Asian-Middle Eastern Affinity Group
- Diverse Associates Group
- Women's Working Groups
- Social Mobility Working Group
- DE&I Working Groups

And the following professionals' affinity networks:

- Black
- East Asian
- Latinx
- Pride
- South East Asian-South Asian-Middle Eastern
- Women's Working Group

Pride at our Brussels office

"As a proud member of the Diverse Associates Group and the Black Associates Group, I'm grateful to be part of a community that supports my professional development both formally and informally. The impact of these groups and all of the affinity groups is critical to nurturing a more inclusive and equitable community across our offices."

Savannah Haynes
Associate, Washington, D.C.

Investing in Future Talent

Cleary Gottlieb recognizes that we must invest in the pipeline of future diverse talent to promote diversity and achieve inclusion.

The firm is a longtime participant in, and supporter of, the Sponsors for Educational Opportunity (SEO) Law Fellowship Program, which provides historically underserved students with legal internships and training prior to their first year of law school. Cleary hosts an annual Summer Diversity Reception that celebrates the firm's partnership with the SEO Law Fellowship Program and focuses on the challenges and advances in increasing diversity, equity, and inclusion in the legal profession.

In addition to the SEO program, Cleary has a long-standing relationship with high school success and college access programs, including Legal Outreach, the Posse Foundation, and a decades-long partnership with the Washington Irving Campus (WIC). The firm's unique and robust partnership with the five public high schools that constitute the WIC includes a mentoring program, a mock trial team, a college access initiative, a book club, professional development workshops, and paid internships for high school students.

In London, Cleary is one of the founding members of City Solicitors Horizons, an initiative that supports young people to access the legal profession through training, mentoring, and work experience. Cleary also works with Aspiring Solicitors and the InterLaw Diversity Forum to support aspiring lawyers from all backgrounds. In 2020, Cleary partnered with our charity partner Toynbee Hall to launch the Champions Project, which provides mentoring and networking opportunities for aspiring lawyers in East London.

We are also a long-standing supporter of the National Literacy Trust, a charity focused on increasing literacy levels among disadvantaged young people. In 2022, Cleary's London office hosted a weeklong virtual internship alongside our client HSBC, introducing a cohort of 30 students to areas of commercial law. Cleary was proud to win the charity's inaugural Collaboration Award in 2022 in recognition of our continued volunteering and fundraising efforts.

These programs drive increased high school graduation rates, college acceptances, and entry into the legal profession, making a profound impact on the communities in which we live and work.

"I believe our success as a global firm is built upon all of the lawyers and administrative professionals who value, respect, and work to develop an inclusive environment. I've seen proof of this as a former member of the Diversity Committee, as an active affinity group member, and as a member of Cleary's Latin America practice."
